

Donating Books and Non-Print Material to the

Thank you for thinking of the library as a place to donate your books and other non-print materials. The items that the Seward Community Library & Museum agrees to accept will either be placed in the library collections for our community to enjoy or donated to the Seward Community Library Association book sale to benefit library collections and programs.

What to Donate

- ♥ Books in good condition
- ♥ DVD or Bluray videos with original cases (No VHS tapes)
- ♥ Music CDs with original cases and inserts (No LPs or cassettes)
- ♥ Audio books on CDs (No cassettes)

What Not to Donate

- ⊗ No items in poor condition: No tears, moisture damage, stains, mold, mildew, pests, animal hair, chew marks, excessive dirt/dust, fading, underlining, or heavy wear of any kind
- ⊗ No VHS or cassette tapes
- ⊗ No vinyl records
- ⊗ No series romances (i.e. Harlequin or Silhouette paperbacks)
- ⊗ No Reader's Digest Condensed Books
- ⊗ No textbooks
- ⊗ No dated nonfiction (almanacs, study guides, travel guides, computer books, etc.)
- ⊗ No magazines or periodicals of any kind
- ⊗ No encyclopedia sets
- ⊗ No incomplete sets of any kind

All claims, now and in the future, are relinquished upon donation.

Items that do not meet these donation standards may be discarded.